

EAST HAMPTON

The Ladies' Village Improvement Society will meet at 3 p.m. Monday at St. Luke's Parish House, for the annual meeting.

The Women's Society of Christian Service will hold its first meeting of the fall season next Monday, Sept. 13, at 8 p.m. at Fellowship Hall, Methodist Church, Mrs. Thomas Gaines, president, will conduct the meeting. Mrs. Dorothy King and Mrs. Merle Cavagnaro will be the hostesses for the evening.

The East Hampton Power Squadron will begin a free piloting course on Tuesday, Sept. 21, at 7 p.m. at the Middle School. The course will be offered in 12 weekly sessions.

Nick Krafchik Jr. of Bridgeport, Conn., and Steve Schmid of Westport, Ohio, grandsons of Mrs. Ludlow Raynor Jr. of Three Mile Harbor Road, have arrived at the weekend after a year's tour of Army duty in Vietnam. Another grandson, Tim Schmid, returned some time ago after Vietnam service with the Seabees.

Sunday school classes for nursery through high school pupils will begin at the Methodist Church this Sunday, Sept. 12, at 9:45 a.m.

Ruddy Baker and Robin Jewett of East Hampton are among the 45 young adults attending a two-week session at Camp Paquatic in Center Moriches, a resident camp sponsored by the Moriches Rotary Club.

Guild Hall has issued an appeal for masks, other than primitives, to be displayed in an exhibition, "The Many Faces of May," Oct. 2-31.

Most Holy Trinity School opened Tuesday with a mass celebrated by the Revs. Christopher Huntington and Peter Garry. The first day was a short session, with classes dismissed at 11 a.m.

John Drodak has joined the MHT faculty. He is a graduate of Notre Dame and New York Universities, and will teach science in the upper grades.

The Jewish Center of the Hamptons, 44 Woods Lane, has announced its schedule of High Holiday services. Rosh Hashana (New Year) services will begin at 8 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 19, at 10 a.m., and at 8 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 20, and at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 21. Kol Nidre services, held on the eve of Yom Kippur, will begin at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 23, and services will be held from 10 a.m. to sundown the following day.

Rabbi Harold Friedlander of Brookline will conduct the Jewish Center is closed during the week, and further information may be obtained from Mrs. Bernard Zeldin of Meadow Way.

Paul R. Scheerer Jr. of East Hampton has been appointed chairman of foundations and trusts solicitation for the $3,000,000 Southampton Hospital expansion fund drive.

Douglas Volkman, son of Dr. and Mrs. George Volkman, 124 Cedar Street, a recent graduate of Clark College of Technology, has accepted a position as a junior civil engineer with the West Virginia Department of Highways.

Thomas Damun, a senior at Cornell College, has been named for entrance to the State College of Veterinary Medicine at Cornell University.

Carol Schultz, ten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Schultz, Oakview Highway, sang selections from "The Sound of Music" at the Todd Nursing Home in Southampton on Wednesday, Sept. 1. She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Mary Ledigerauer. Mrs. Schultz is assistant director of nurses at the Nursing Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Lebert of Fireplace Road were given a surprise 25th wedding anniversary party Aug. 29 by a group of their friends and former Garden City neighbors.

The East Hampton Town Republican Club will hold its September meeting next Tuesday, Sept. 14, at 8 p.m. at the VFW Building on Main Street. There will be a guest speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Neuhaus are the parents of a daughter, born Aug. 30 at the Southampton Hospital.

Mr. Hangs sustained lacerations on the left arm, and Mrs. Olson suffered a broken collar bone. Mr. Brown was issued a summons for unlicensed operation of a motor vehicle. They were later released.

Eva Zucker, 748 West End Avenue, New York, and Carla Goodson, 290 6th Avenue, New York, were taken to the hospital last Thursday after the 1971 Ford Mrs. Zucker was driving west at about 6 p.m. on Old Stone Highway, Springs, near Louie Point Road, skidded and struck a tree off the north side of the road.

The driver suffered a bruised arm, and her passenger received a bump on the head. They were treated and released.

A 1968 Pontiac sedan driven east on Lazy Point Road, near Napeague Meadow Lane, Napeague, at about 8:40 p.m. Sunday, skidded on a turn and struck a Long Island Lighting Company pole. The driver, Jay S. Reibel, 20, of East 9th Street, New York, sustained injuries to his face and left leg, and a passenger, Gail B. Shaan, 235 East 22nd Street, New York, suffered injuries to her right arm, face and left hand. Both were taken to the hospital by the East Hampton ambulance, and later released.

A 1966 Ford driven by Pamela Kern, 15, of Sag Harbor, was in heading west on Route 27 near the intersection of the Deep Hollow Ranch Monday at about 3:30 p.m.

Police said that Miss Kern had pulled off on the north side of the Highway and was attempting to make a u-turn to head east when it came in contact with the Pontiac driven by Mrs. Ramos, also heading east.

The Ford's owner, Judith Sommers, Sag Road, Sag Harbor, was injured, as was Mrs. William Hulse.

Robert and Roger Lyons, both of Gurney's Inn, were also taken to the hospital, for treatment of shock. The hospital reported Mr. Brooks' condition as satisfactory yesterday.

Herman Hangs of 3805 Dyre Avenue, Bronx, and Mrs. Elizabeth Olson, Tyler Road, Montauk, were taken to the hospital last Thursday after the 1968 Chevrolet sedan was involved in a collision with a 1971 Ford van collided at the intersection of Old Montauk Highway and Route 27 in Hither Hills, Montauk, at about 3:30 a.m.

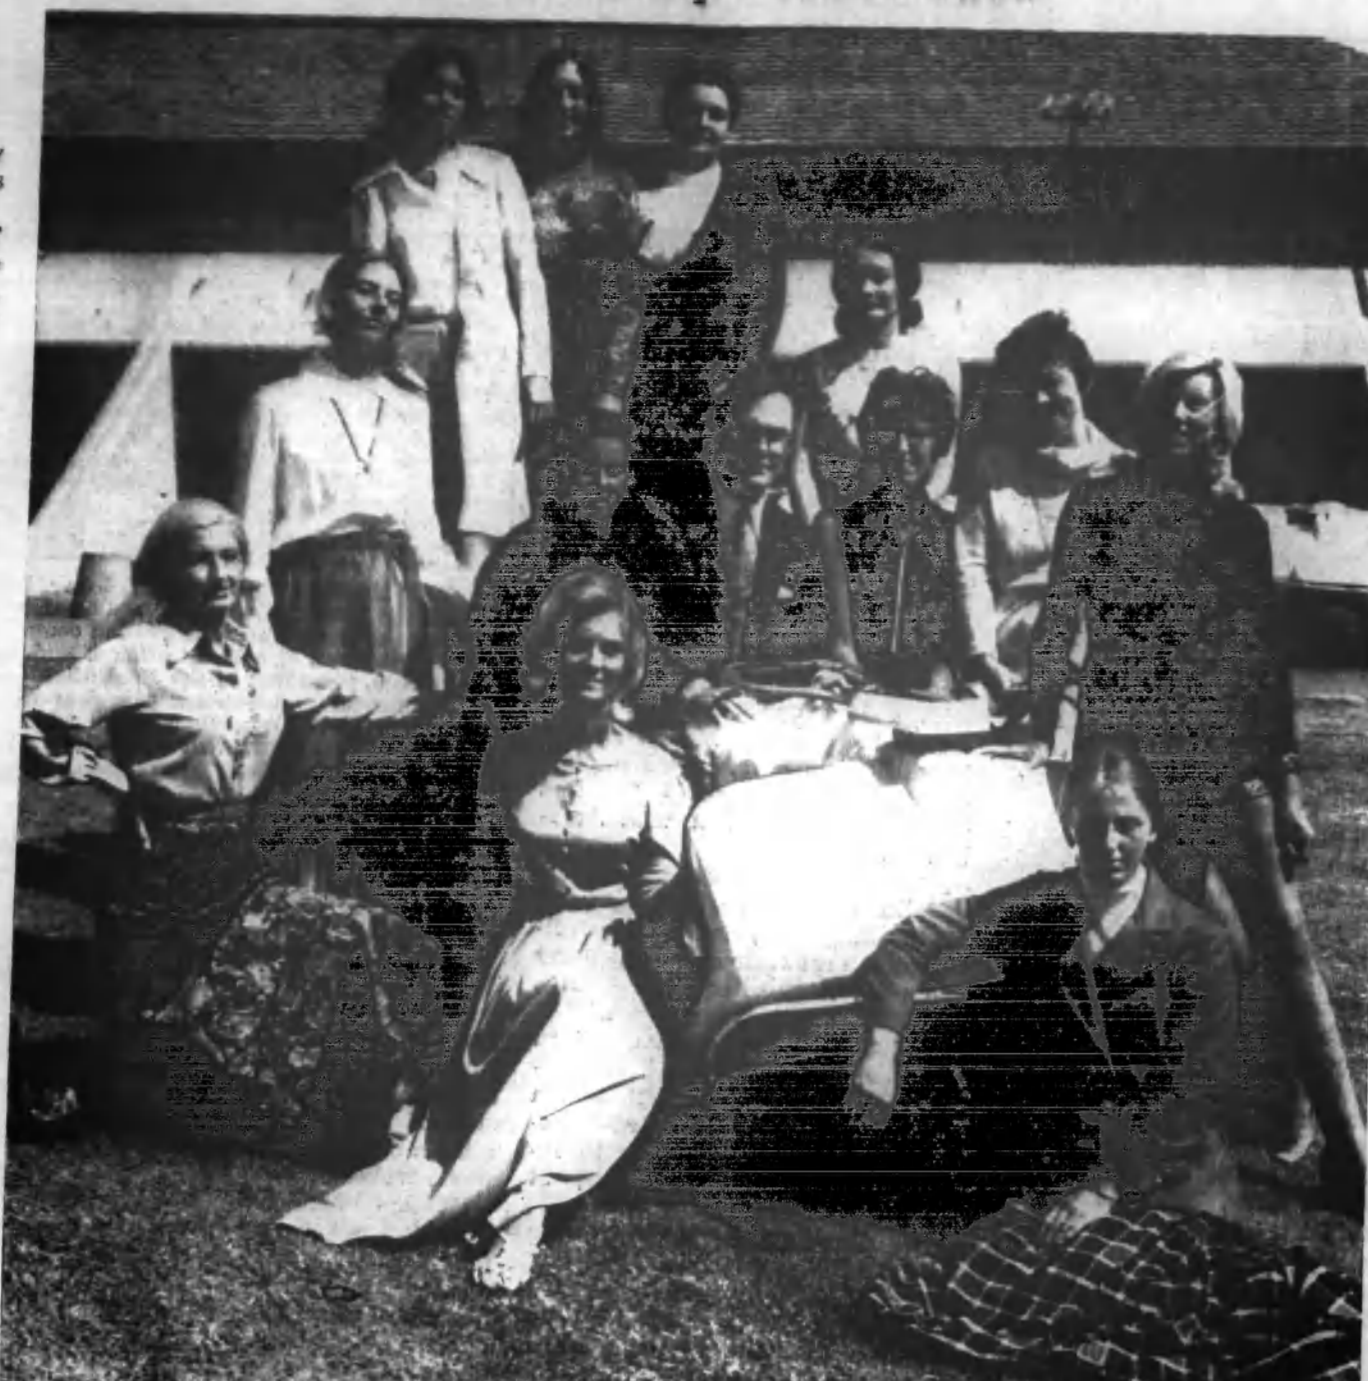

The Ford was being driven east on Route 27 by Edward Brown, 1683 East Main Street, Babylon, and Mr. Hangs was entering Route 27.

Thirteen persons were taken to Southampton Hospital last week for treatment following automobile accidents investigated by the East Hampton Town Police Department.

The worst accident occurred shortly after midnight last Thursday when William J. Brooks, whose address was given as Gurney's Inn, Old Montauk Highway, Montauk, was taken to the hospital with broken legs, internal injuries, a concussion and broken ribs after the 1970 Mustang he was driving on Old Montauk Highway, about half a mile west of Route 27, skidded, ran off the road and struck a telephone pole.

The driver was pinned in the wreckage, and was extricated from the car by the Montauk Fire Department rescue unit. His passengers,

At Fellowship Fashion Show

THE MONTAUK COMMUNITY Church Fellowship Group held a fashion show and luncheon on Aug. 25 at the Golf and Racquet Club, with clothes from Mark, Fore & Strike, surrounded by a montage of models were in the golf cart. Jean Babcock, the Rev. William Carlton, Marge Bellefontaine; the two ladies were in charge of arrangements.

Many Accidents Over Holiday

Thirteen persons were taken to Southampton Hospital last week for treatment following automobile accidents investigated by the East Hampton Town Police Department.

The worst accident occurred shortly after midnight last Thursday when William J. Brooks, whose address was given as Gurney's Inn, Old Montauk Highway, Montauk, was taken to the hospital with broken legs, internal injuries, a concussion and broken ribs after the 1970 Mustang he was driving on Old Montauk Highway, about half a mile west of Route 27, skidded, ran off the road and struck a telephone pole.

The driver was pinned in the wreckage, and was extricated from the car by the Montauk Fire Department rescue unit. His passengers,

27 from Old Montauk Highway when the accident occurred. The Hangs car left the north side of the Highway and ran a quarter of a mile into the brush.

Mr. Hangs sustained lacerations on the left arm, and Mrs. Olson suffered a broken collar bone. Mr. Brown was issued a summons for unlicensed operation of a motor vehicle. They were later released.

Eva Zucker, 748 West End Avenue, New York, and Carla Goodson, 290 6th Avenue, New York, were taken to the hospital last Thursday after the 1971 Ford Mrs. Zucker was driving west at about 6 p.m. on Old Stone Highway, Springs, near Louie Point Road, skidded and struck a tree off the north side of the road.

The driver suffered a bruised arm, and her passenger received a bump on the head. They were treated and released.

A 1968 Pontiac sedan driven east on Lazy Point Road, near Napeague Meadow Lane, Napeague, at about 8:40 p.m. Sunday, skidded on a turn and struck a Long Island Lighting Company pole. The driver, Jay S. Reibel, 20, of East 9th Street, New York, sustained injuries to his face and left leg, and a passenger, Gail B. Shaan, 235 East 22nd Street, New York, suffered injuries to her right arm, face and left hand. Both were taken to the hospital by the East Hampton ambulance, and later released.

A 1966 Ford driven by Pamela Kern, 15, of Sag Harbor, was in heading west on Route 27 near the intersection of the Deep Hollow Ranch Monday at about 3:30 p.m.

Police said that Miss Kern had pulled off on the north side of the Highway and was attempting to make a u-turn to head east when it came in contact with the Pontiac driven by Mrs. Ramos, also heading east.

The Ford's owner, Judith Sommers, Sag Road, Sag Harbor, was injured, as was Mrs. William Hulse.

Robert and Roger Lyons, both of Gurney's Inn, were also taken to the hospital, for treatment of shock. The hospital reported Mr. Brooks' condition as satisfactory yesterday.

Herman Hangs of 3805 Dyre Avenue, Bronx, and Mrs. Elizabeth Olson, Tyler Road, Montauk, were taken to the hospital last Thursday after the 1968 Chevrolet sedan was involved in a collision with a 1971 Ford van collided at the intersection of Old Montauk Highway and Route 27 in Hither Hills, Montauk, at about 3:30 a.m.

The Ford was being driven east on Route 27 by Edward Brown, 1683 East Main Street, Babylon, and Mr. Hangs was entering Route 27.

Thirteen persons were taken to Southampton Hospital last week for treatment following automobile accidents investigated by the East Hampton Town Police Department.

The worst accident occurred shortly after midnight last Thursday when William J. Brooks, whose address was given as Gurney's Inn, Old Montauk Highway, Montauk, was taken to the hospital with broken legs, internal injuries, a concussion and broken ribs after the 1970 Mustang he was driving on Old Montauk Highway, about half a mile west of Route 27, skidded, ran off the road and struck a telephone pole.

The driver was pinned in the wreckage, and was extricated from the car by the Montauk Fire Department rescue unit. His passengers,

27 from Old Montauk Highway when the accident occurred. The Hangs car left the north side of the Highway and ran a quarter of a mile into the brush.

Mr. Hangs sustained lacerations on the left arm, and Mrs. Olson suffered a broken collar bone. Mr. Brown was issued a summons for unlicensed operation of a motor vehicle. They were later released.

Eva Zucker, 748 West End Avenue, New York, and Carla Goodson, 290 6th Avenue, New York, were taken to the hospital last Thursday after the 1971 Ford Mrs. Zucker was driving west at about 6 p.m. on Old Stone Highway, Springs, near Louie Point Road, skidded and struck a tree off the north side of the road.

The driver suffered a bruised arm, and her passenger received a bump on the head. They were treated and released.

A 1968 Pontiac sedan driven east on Lazy Point Road, near Napeague Meadow Lane, Napeague, at about 8:40 p.m. Sunday, skidded on a turn and struck a Long Island Lighting Company pole. The driver, Jay S. Reibel, 20, of East 9th Street, New York, sustained injuries to his face and left leg, and a passenger, Gail B. Shaan, 235 East 22nd Street, New York, suffered injuries to her right arm, face and left hand. Both were taken to the hospital by the East Hampton ambulance, and later released.

A 1966 Ford driven by Pamela Kern, 15, of Sag Harbor, was in heading west on Route 27 near the intersection of the Deep Hollow Ranch Monday at about 3:30 p.m.

Police said that Miss Kern had pulled off on the north side of the Highway and was attempting to make a u-turn to head east when it came in contact with the Pontiac driven by Mrs. Ramos, also heading east.

The Ford's owner, Judith Sommers, Sag Road, Sag Harbor, was injured, as was Mrs. William Hulse.

Robert and Roger Lyons, both of Gurney's Inn, were also taken to the hospital, for treatment of shock. The hospital reported Mr. Brooks' condition as satisfactory yesterday.

Herman Hangs of 3805 Dyre Avenue, Bronx, and Mrs. Elizabeth Olson, Tyler Road, Montauk, were taken to the hospital last Thursday after the 1968 Chevrolet sedan was involved in a collision with a 1971 Ford van collided at the intersection of Old Montauk Highway and Route 27 in Hither Hills, Montauk, at about 3:30 a.m.

The Ford was being driven east on Route 27 by Edward Brown, 1683 East Main Street, Babylon, and Mr. Hangs was entering Route 27.

Thirteen persons were taken to Southampton Hospital last week for treatment following automobile accidents investigated by the East Hampton Town Police Department.

The worst accident occurred shortly after midnight last Thursday when William J. Brooks, whose address was given as Gurney's Inn, Old Montauk Highway, Montauk, was taken to the hospital with broken legs, internal injuries, a concussion and broken ribs after the 1970 Mustang he was driving on Old Montauk Highway, about half a mile west of Route 27, skidded, ran off the road and struck a telephone pole.

The driver was pinned in the wreckage, and was extricated from the car by the Montauk Fire Department rescue unit. His passengers,

Commercial Boulevard, Central Islip, who received a bump on the forehead.

Injured in the Ramos car were Mrs. Ramos, who received a scrape on the right elbow, and Julie Ramos, six, who had a tooth knocked out. All were taken to the hospital by the Montauk ambulance. Miss Kern was issued a summons on a charge of unlicensed operation of a motor vehicle. The accident victims were treated at the hospital and released.

At about 3:30 a.m. Sunday, a 1966 Porsche driven by Joan Stoelzel, 299 Sheep Pasture Road, East Setauket, struck a 1967 Cadillac parked on Main Street, Amagansett, while making a u-turn. The driver received a split lip and two cracked teeth.

Her passenger, Roy Lazier, 104 East 20th Street, New York, received a cut on his chin and complained of leg pains and a headache. The owner of the Cadillac, Mandel Weinberger, who was in his car, complained of leg pains. All refused medical attention, police said.

A 1971 Austin driven by Mrs. Grace Siegel, 39 Mulford Lane, Amagansett, struck a Long Island Lighting Company pole off Shore Road, Amagansett at about 12:30 p.m. last Thursday, breaking it off.

Herbert Buckner, 229-15 Hoxie Drive, Bayville, told police on Sunday that a yellow and white van, heading west on Route 27 near Skimhampton Road at about 7 p.m., struck the right side of his Oldsmobile sedan, which was also heading west, then made a u-turn and headed east.

All units were alerted to be on the lookout for the van. A passenger in Mr. Buckner's car, Roger Levin, 16 East 8th Street, New York, complained of an injury to his right leg, but refused medical attention, police said.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Orcutt of Miller Place were guests of the Misses Peggy Moffatt and Evelyn Straus of South Endicot Place over the weekend. Miss Moffatt's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Marston Moffatt of Glastonbury, Conn., also spent the weekend.

At last Saturday's East Deck duplicate bridge game the winners were Dr. Felix Fuchs and Don Olive. Mr. and Mrs. Lou Pernick were second, followed by Mary Kawachi and Nick Seonai.

Henry Uihlein Jr. left Sept. 7 for Tampa, Fla., where he will enter his junior year at the University there.

Todd Sigler will leave Sept. 10 for his second year at the St. Albert School, Middletown, N.Y.

The New York Ocean Science Laboratory will hold a symposium on off-shore drilling at Deep Hollow Ranch, Sept. 13 and 14. Organizations meeting this month at Gurney's Inn include Viking Press, Humble Oil, Benton and Bowles and the C. Lloyd Johnson Company. The Postmaster's Luncheon will be held at Gurney's today, Sept. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Leibowitz and three children of Parsippany, N.J., spent their recent days with Mrs. Leibowitz' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin McDonald of Essex Street. Mr. Leibowitz' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leibowitz of New York, returned on Sunday to spend the day with the family.

The Montauk Golf and Racquet Club held its annual "Trophy Night" Aug. 28. Awards were presented in golf, tennis and swimming. Especially noteworthy was the achievement of young golfer Edward John Pospisil, age 11, who shot a 48 for nine holes.

Fishing has been good at East Lake dock, with all boats out for the long weekend. Weakfish, fluke, blues and some striper were taken.

The inlet had a busy weekend, and reported that the striped bass run improved late Sunday and Monday.

Both the crowds and the fishing

Some makes of many blues have been brought in at the Deep Sea Marina. Irwin Stein, aboard the Nassau Miss, boated a 201 pound mako on Sunday.

Fishing has been good at East Lake dock, with all boats out for the long weekend. Weakfish, fluke, blues and some striper were taken.

The inlet had a busy weekend, and reported that the striped bass run improved late Sunday and Monday.

Both the crowds and the fishing

Some makes of many blues have been brought in at the Deep Sea Marina. Irwin Stein, aboard the Nassau Miss, boated a 201 pound mako on Sunday.

Fishing has been good at East Lake dock, with all boats out for the long weekend. Weakfish, fluke, blues and some striper were taken.

The inlet had a busy weekend, and reported that the striped bass run improved late Sunday and Monday.

Both the crowds and the fishing

Some makes of many blues have been brought in at the Deep Sea Marina. Irwin Stein, aboard the Nassau Miss, boated a 201 pound mako on Sunday.

Fishing has been good at East Lake dock, with all boats out for the long weekend. Weakfish, fluke, blues and some striper were taken.

The inlet had a busy weekend, and reported that the striped bass run improved late Sunday and Monday.

Both the crowds and the fishing

Some makes of many blues have been brought in at the Deep Sea Marina. Irwin Stein, aboard the Nassau Miss, boated a 201 pound mako on Sunday.

Fishing has been good at East Lake dock, with all boats out for the long weekend. Weakfish, fluke, blues and some striper were taken.

in the intermediate class; his brother, Bobby, won the intermediate freestyle.

Young Mike Casel, aged eight, won both the breast stroke and the back stroke events in the novice class; Mike Swegalen, nine, was the winner of the novice freestyle.

Captain Carl Forsberg of Fairview Avenue, who recently underwent major surgery at Syosset Hospital, is making an excellent recovery. He is in Room 313 and would welcome cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Duffy of East Lake Drive have a newly adopted infant daughter, Kathleen. Their older adopted child is two and a half year old Kelly.

William Steck, now living in Finland, is here visiting his mother, Mrs. Edna Steck of Flamingo Road, for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Loper and son Thomas, of Riva, Md., spent the holiday weekend with her mother, Mrs. Rita Carroll of Debussy Street.

Alun B. Williams of Lincoln Road won the Frank Borah painting of Second House raffled off Labor Day at Second House Museum. Miss Paula Casti, age eight, of Richmond Hill, N.Y., drew the lucky number from several hundred chances.

Just a word to visitors and tourists coming to and through Montauk and stopping at the Lighthouse grounds: please bring your binoculars from home instead of taking such from the grounds, where they are sorely needed to help stop erosion.

THREE MORE SCIENTISTS have joined the staff of the New York Ocean Science Laboratory at Montauk. They are, from left, Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, research scientist in biology on leave from St. John's University, Dr. Josephine M. Hurst, associate research scientist in physiology, who is studying tumor-inhibiting properties of studies on porgies and flounder.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis Griffith of Port Washington visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gaudal last week.

Alun B. Williams of Lincoln Road won the Frank Borah painting of Second House raffled off Labor Day at Second House Museum. Miss Paula Casti, age eight, of Richmond Hill, N.Y., drew the lucky number from several hundred chances.

Just a word to visitors and tourists coming to and through Montauk and stopping at the Lighthouse grounds: please bring your binoculars from home instead of taking such from the grounds, where they are sorely needed to help stop erosion.

THREE MORE SCIENTISTS have joined the staff of the New York Ocean Science Laboratory at Montauk. They are, from left, Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, research scientist in biology on leave from St. John's University, Dr. Josephine M. Hurst, associate research scientist in physiology, who is studying tumor-inhibiting properties of studies on porgies and flounder.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis Griffith of Port Washington visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gaudal last week.

Alun B. Williams of Lincoln Road won the Frank Borah painting of Second House raffled off Labor Day at Second House Museum. Miss Paula Casti, age eight, of Richmond Hill, N.Y., drew the lucky number from several hundred chances.

Just a word to visitors and tourists coming to and through Montauk and stopping at the Lighthouse grounds: please bring your binoculars from home instead of taking such from the grounds, where they are sorely needed to help stop erosion.

THREE MORE SCIENTISTS have joined the staff of the New York Ocean Science Laboratory at Montauk. They are, from left, Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, research scientist in biology on leave from St. John's University, Dr. Josephine M. Hurst, associate research scientist in physiology, who is studying tumor-inhibiting properties of studies on porgies and flounder.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis Griffith of Port Washington visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gaudal last week.

Alun B. Williams of Lincoln Road won the Frank Borah painting of Second House raffled off Labor Day at Second House Museum. Miss Paula Casti, age eight, of Richmond Hill, N.Y., drew the lucky number from several hundred chances.

Just a word to visitors and tourists coming to and through Montauk and stopping at the Lighthouse grounds: please bring your binoculars from home instead of taking such from the grounds, where they are sorely needed to help stop erosion.

THREE MORE SCIENTISTS have joined the staff of the New York Ocean Science Laboratory at Montauk. They are, from left, Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, research scientist in biology on leave from St. John's University, Dr. Josephine M. Hurst, associate research scientist in physiology, who is studying tumor-inhibiting properties of studies on porgies and flounder.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis Griffith of Port Washington visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gaudal last week.

Alun B. Williams of Lincoln Road won the Frank Borah painting of Second House raffled off Labor Day at Second House Museum. Miss Paula Casti, age eight, of Richmond Hill, N.Y., drew the lucky number from several hundred chances.

Just a word to visitors and tourists coming to and through Montauk and stopping at the Lighthouse grounds: please bring your binoculars from home instead of taking such from the grounds, where they are sorely needed to help stop erosion.

THREE MORE SCIENTISTS have joined the staff of the New York Ocean Science Laboratory at Montauk. They are, from left, Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, research scientist in biology on leave from St. John's University, Dr. Josephine M. Hurst, associate research scientist in physiology, who is studying tumor-inhibiting properties of studies on porgies and flounder.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis Griffith of Port Washington visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gaudal last week.

Alun B. Williams of Lincoln Road won the Frank Borah painting of Second House raffled off Labor Day at Second House Museum. Miss Paula Casti, age eight, of Richmond Hill, N.Y., drew the lucky number from several hundred chances.

Just a word to visitors and tourists coming to and through Montauk and stopping at the Lighthouse grounds: please bring your binoculars from home instead of taking such from the grounds, where they are sorely needed to help stop erosion.

THREE MORE SCIENTISTS have joined the staff of the New York Ocean Science Laboratory at Montauk. They are, from left, Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, research scientist in biology on leave from St. John's University, Dr. Josephine M. Hurst, associate research scientist in physiology, who is studying tumor-inhibiting properties of studies on porgies and flounder.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis Griffith of Port Washington visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gaudal last week.

Alun B. Williams of Lincoln Road won the Frank Borah painting of Second House raffled off Labor Day at Second House Museum. Miss Paula Casti, age eight, of Richmond Hill, N.Y., drew the lucky number from several hundred chances.

On Ocean Lab Staff

THREE MORE SCIENTISTS have joined the staff of the New York Ocean Science Laboratory at Montauk. They are, from left, Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, research scientist in biology on leave from St. John's University, Dr. Josephine M. Hurst, associate research scientist in physiology, who is studying tumor-inhibiting properties of studies on porgies and flounder.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis Griffith of Port Washington visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gaudal last week.

Alun B. Williams of Lincoln Road won the Frank Borah painting of Second House raffled off Labor Day at Second House Museum. Miss Paula Casti, age eight, of Richmond Hill, N.Y., drew the lucky number from several hundred chances.

Just a word to visitors and tourists coming to and through Montauk and stopping at the Lighthouse grounds: please bring your binoculars from home instead of taking such from the grounds, where they are sorely needed to help stop erosion.

THREE MORE SCIENTISTS have joined the staff of the New York Ocean Science Laboratory at Montauk. They are, from left, Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, research scientist in biology on leave from St. John's University, Dr. Josephine M. Hurst, associate research scientist in physiology, who is studying tumor-inhibiting properties of studies on porgies and flounder.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis Griffith of Port Washington visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gaudal last week.

Alun B. Williams of Lincoln Road won the Frank Borah painting of Second House raffled off Labor Day at Second House Museum. Miss Paula Casti, age eight, of Richmond Hill, N.Y., drew the lucky number from several hundred chances.

Just a word to visitors and tourists coming to and through Montauk and stopping at the Lighthouse grounds: please bring your binoculars from home instead of taking such from the grounds, where they are sorely needed to help stop erosion.

THREE MORE SCIENTISTS have joined the staff of the New York Ocean Science Laboratory at Montauk. They are, from left, Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, research scientist in biology on leave from St. John's University, Dr. Josephine M. Hurst, associate research scientist in physiology, who is studying tumor-inhibiting properties of studies on porgies and flounder.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis Griffith of Port Washington visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gaudal last week.

Alun B. Williams of Lincoln Road won the Frank Borah painting of Second House raffled off Labor Day at Second House Museum. Miss Paula Casti, age eight, of Richmond Hill, N.Y., drew the lucky number from several hundred chances.

Just a word to visitors and tourists coming to and through Montauk and stopping at the Lighthouse grounds: please bring your binoculars from home instead of taking such from the grounds, where they are sorely needed to help stop erosion.

THREE MORE SCIENTISTS have joined the staff of the New York Ocean Science Laboratory at Montauk. They are, from left, Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, research scientist in biology on leave from St. John's University, Dr. Josephine M. Hurst, associate research scientist in physiology, who is studying tumor-inhibiting properties of studies on porgies and flounder.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis Griffith of Port Washington visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gaudal last week.

Alun B. Williams of Lincoln Road won the Frank Borah painting of Second House raffled off Labor Day at Second House Museum. Miss Paula Casti, age eight, of Richmond Hill, N.Y., drew the lucky number from several hundred chances.

Just a word to visitors and tourists coming to and through Montauk and stopping at the Lighthouse grounds: please bring your binoculars from home instead of taking such from the grounds, where they are sorely needed to help stop erosion.

THREE MORE SCIENTISTS have joined the staff of the New York Ocean Science Laboratory at Montauk. They are, from left, Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, research scientist in biology on leave from St. John's University, Dr. Josephine M. Hurst, associate research scientist in physiology, who is studying tumor-inhibiting properties of studies on porgies and flounder.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis Griffith of Port Washington visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gaudal last week.

Alun B. Williams of Lincoln Road won the Frank Borah painting of Second House raffled off Labor Day at Second House Museum. Miss Paula Casti, age eight, of Richmond Hill, N.Y., drew the lucky number from several hundred chances.

Just a word to visitors and tourists coming to and through Montauk and stopping at the L